

Weather Notes

- ① Dew - Moisture that has condensed on objects near the ground, whose temperatures have fallen past the dew point.
- ② Frost - A covering of thin ice crystals that form on the ground or other surface when temperatures approach or drop below 32°F .
- ③ Fog - Water that has condensed close to ground level, producing a cloud that reduces visibility.